SPECIAL EVENTS

HOMECOMING

Though the cold wind nipped fiercely at their bare hands and cheeks, Schurzites with a Homecoming victory in mind, cheered enthusiastically and led their Bulldogs to a 24-7 victory over the Steinmetz Streaks.

One of the main events was the procession of floats built to the theme of "Up, up and Away". The climax of the day came when Cheryl Gibbs, escourted by her court consisting of Carolyn Hesotian, Chris King, Linda Twar, and Myra Williams, was crowned the 1967 Homecoming Queen.

The joy of a victory, the delight at the sight of the floats, and the excitement of choosing the queen . . . all were elements in making Homecoming perfect.

JUNIOR PROM

Can the boys' big gym really be transformed into an enchanting medieval castle? This was the question that the decorations committee asked themselves on March 8, 1968, fifth period. It seemed impossible. There were streamers, paper walls, shields, suits of armor, dragons, swords, and even a magician to be put up before 6:00.

It took six hours, 100 hands, unlimited energy, and tons of cooperation, but it was successfully accomplished. For three hours on that Friday night 1968 slipped away and Sir Lancelot, gallant squires, and beautiful damsels lived again.

SENIOR PROM

A new formal, an orchid corsage, and a rented tux add to the magic of the soft June night of the Senior Prom. In a romantic atmosphere, couples reminisce, dance and enjoy a meal fit for kings and queens. This anticipated event is the highlight of the year for the Seniors.

SCIENCE FAIR

In the midst of nervous hamsters, confusing charts, and towering exhibits, Schurz holds its annual Science Fair. This occasion gives all the students a chance to participate in one of the most interesting events of the school year.

The Fair is always a fascinating display of ingenuity, talent, and scientific knowledge. Categories for the exhibits include Biology, Physics, Math, and Chemistry, giving students a wide margin for expressing their abilities. The winners are given a chance to participate in the District Fair, where they meet even greater competition.

This is the Schurz Science Fair. Even Einstein never had it so good.

N.H.S. INDUCTIONS

In a solemn procession, inductees carrying flickering candles gather with present members on the darkened stage of Slocum Hall to receive the oath of the National Honor Society. The newly inducted students are then congratulated by Dr. Vandenberg and the program is concluded with the singing of the school song.

The attainment of a long sought after goal and hopes for the future are reflected in the faces of these Schurzites making these inductions memorable occasions for the inductees, their parents, and relatives.

PLAYS

Lights dim, freshly painted sets are pushed into place and in the midst of the last vibrations of the overture HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS WITHOUT REALLY TRYING began.

The process of putting together the play began months before its opening. There were tryouts, lines to be memorized, sets to be painted, and costumes to be sewn. All of these things were artfully accomplished with the help of Miss Rebek, the Schurz Players, and the construction crews.

The results of all their work and talent proved that one could succeed in business and succeed they did.

CONCERTS

The Schurz orchestra, band, and choruses combine their talents and abilities three times during the school year to enliven the Fall, Christmas, and Lenten seasons with spirited entertainment.

These concerts, highlighted by melodious solos and old traditional favorites are among the most anticipated events of the school year.

NOEL

Saturnalia

For one night, the social room and the Latin students were transported to the world of Caesar and Vergil.

With Mrs. Robeson as host and the students as guests, the Latin Club celebrated its annual Saturnalia feast. After the blessing of the wine and the prayer to the goddess of plenty, the guests were served a delicious meal by their slaves.

After the meal, the pseudo-Romans were entertained by gladiator fights, oracles and drama skits. The end of the entertainment signaled the end of the banquet and a return to the 20th century for the guests. — John Pick

SOCIALS

Place: where boy meets girl and both dance happily ever after. Time: almost every month. Event: a Schurz social.

One's always bound to find an interesting conglomeration of hopeful wallflowers, loud-mouthed participants and in general, students of all shapes and sizes. You can dance, drink soda out of a brightly colored cup or listen to the blaring beat. And the perfect end to a beautiful evening? Deaf ears, tired feet and a beautiful memory.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

Climaxing this years rugged football schedule, a banquet was held at the Horner Park Field House in honor of the Bulldogs.

The special feature was a speech given by Mr. Alex Agase, head coach of Northwestern University. Next on the agenda, the captain and coaches presented awards to the most valuable player, Steve Simko; most improved, Gary Sesina; most tackles, John Warner; coaches award, Ralph Sesso; and letters.

The finale was a speech by coach O'Keefe giving recognition to the team for their fine performance throughout the season.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Many factors should be considered when it comes to the performance of the "Schurz Gridders" this year. A few of the important factors are the slow start that the "Bulldogs" got off to as a result of the difficult selecting of personnel to do the job; field conditions, such as the muddy fields the "Bulldogs" played on; and the injuries to several of our key players.

It should be taken into consideration that the Schurz coaching staff had a tough time selecting the right boys for the right job. Another consideration is the field conditions. Schurz played Austin, Steinmetz, Lakeview, and Dunbar in the mud. The remaining factor is injuries. The Schurz line suffered tremendous losses when Hendricks, Sardilli, and Simko were unable to play. These factors are known as the "breaks of the game!"

In conclusion, it should be added that the "Bulldogs" had a good season, ending with a 4-3 record and with hopes for even a brighter season next year. Players and spectators alike salute Fred O'Keefe and his excellent coaching staff for instilling a fine sense of sportsmanship and fair play.

FROSH-SOPH FOOTBALL

This year's Frosh-Soph team once again is going to supply the Varsity with the talent and experience that is needed to build a winning team. The squad consisted of 13 Sophomores, that will become Varsity next fall, and 13 Freshmen that will return for another season on the Frosh-Soph. With 7 out of the 13 Freshmen lettering, Coach Menaker eagerly awaits their return. Players receiving awards were: Gregg Thiemeyer, most valuable player; Bob Leibich, most valuable lineman; Joe Sesso, most valuable back; and Antonio Metoyer, Coaches' Award. Fine performances were also given by co-captains Danny Grenier and Tom Smith.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

As a result of last year's magnificent performance, the Schurz Varsity basketball team has advanced from the Blue Division to the north section Red Division. This meritorious step forward meant that the team would have to face a more formidable breed of opponent. However, despite this additional strain, the team managed to stay near the top until a strong Sullivan squad toppled our Cagers with a 57-52 victory. This untimely loss forced the team into third place with a 10 win-4 loss League record. Next year the team will be without the services of three of our first stringers: Steve Simko, star center; Al Mendro, forward; and Pat Denning, forward. Despite this fact, Coach Postl's worries are somewhat quelled by the fact that top scorers George Zimmerman and Bob Dekas will return next year for another spine-tingling season.

FROSH-SOPH

Although not quite as potent as last year's squad, this year's Frosh-Soph team will provide the athletic ability always needed to create a winning team. Under Mr. Menaker's coaching, the team has learned not only the basic skills of dribbling, passing, and shooting but also the cardinal rules of good sportsmanship and fair play.

TRACK TEAM

Who runs in the halls with everyone's permission? You guessed it. Coach DuVal's trackmen. Everyday during track season the team did its warm-ups around the triangle. Coach DuVal's Seniors were a little slow off the mark this year, but had a really strong finish. The Juniors showing promise for a fast squad next year finished with a 3-2 record.

Despite the Senior's bad luck, three placed in city-wide competition. As of this writing, Joel Pompa had earned second place in the half-mile; Cindermen Schwartz and Sesso held second and fifth in the shot-put; and from the Juniors, Tony Metoyer had pole-vaulted into fifth. The Schurzone congratulates these boys and Coach DuVal for their fine efforts.

WRESTLING

Wrestling was chosen as the chief test of a man's athletic prowess in the famous Greek pantathlon. This tradition, of man meeting man with no armor beside his muscles and his wits, was continued this year by Coach O'Keefe's wrestlers. The matmen, as all amateur wrestlers, purposely avoided the bone-crushing and grunt-and-groan tactics of some television matches. They used instead the holds developed by the Ancients; holds that are basic to good wrestling. Coach O'Keefe also taught them some new ones that are based on the principles of leverage and mechanics.

Joe Panico, in his first year, put his training to good work by becoming the top wrestler with 76 points. Veteran squad members Wade, Grenier and Sesso followed closely in the scoring.

SWIMMING

The Schurz mermen after suffering an early season defeat, went on to prevail against all remaining opponents in dual meet competition. Coach Preo, after three successful seasons as swimming coach, relinquishes his association with prep swimming at the close of this season. Graduating pool record holders John Lawson, Scott Nordenmalm (capt.), Bob Butka, John Mueller and Wayne Olson have dominated the individual medley, 400 yard freestyle, 100 yard backstroke, 100 yard butterfly and 100 yard breaststroke, respectively, throughout the season. BASEBALL

Last year's Yearbook boasted the following remark, "After finishing with a 7-6 record in the 1966 season, the Schurz batmen are sure they can improve that record in 1967." Amen! and so it was that this fantastic foresight into the future became reality. The team with a 11-4 season record captured second place in their division. Unfortunately, after defeating Lane Tech in the Quarter Finals, Taft H.S. stepped in to relinquish any further dreams of a 1967 Championship bid.

GOLF

Golf is a sport that requires neither muscle nor size, but rather knowledge and skill. A golfer, in order to perform at his best, must have both the knowledge of which club to use and the skill to use them. Mr. Lindley is eagerly awaiting the results of his first season as golf coach.

TENNIS

The tennis team is probably the least known of any of the Schurz teams. Under the talented advice of Coach Pakucko, the team which consists of players: J. Bianchi (Capt.), M. Masouka, N. Klutch, R. Butka, R. Trout, T. Gnoyke, E. Monroe, and S. Wade is looking forward to a prosperous and victorious season.

What would a half-time be without the flashing batons of the Majorettes? Outstanding of this year's routines were the arrangements of "Bend Me Shape Me" and "The Rain, The Park, and Other Things."

Cheerleaders

Be it a wintry November afternoon or a stuffy gymnasium, we can count on our cheerleaders to be there; sparking our Bulldogs on to victory. It is a job that is envied by most girls, but no one envies the work schedule and the amount of practice that these girls have. Still at every game they are fresh and lively, seemingly unaffected by weather or even a game that's not going right. Everyone knows that when the game is over there are two Schurz squads that have really knocked themselves out for a victory.

PEP CLUB

If that girl in the white sweatshirt never talked to you, don't be offended. She wasn't unfriendly. She wasn't shy. She just couldn't talk because her throat was so sore. At a game that girl was one of the loudest, most emotional, peppiest girls there! That white sweatshirt meant she belonged to the Pep Club.

The Pep Club under the sponsorship of Mrs. Hegener, is a group of girls who want to do all that they can do for a Bulldog victory, from the stands. They meet regularly to learn and practice new cheers. Then at a football, basektball game and, of course at a Pep Assembly, they sit en masse, with President Jean "Smitty" Smithers, all dressed in white sweatshirt. First cheer to last the Pep Club's enthusiasm seems double their numbers. It is basic chemistry that . . . .

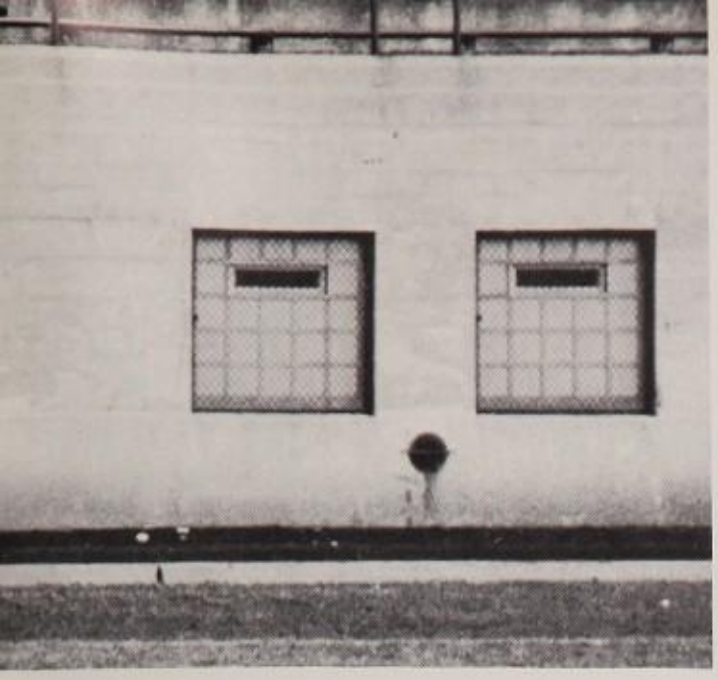
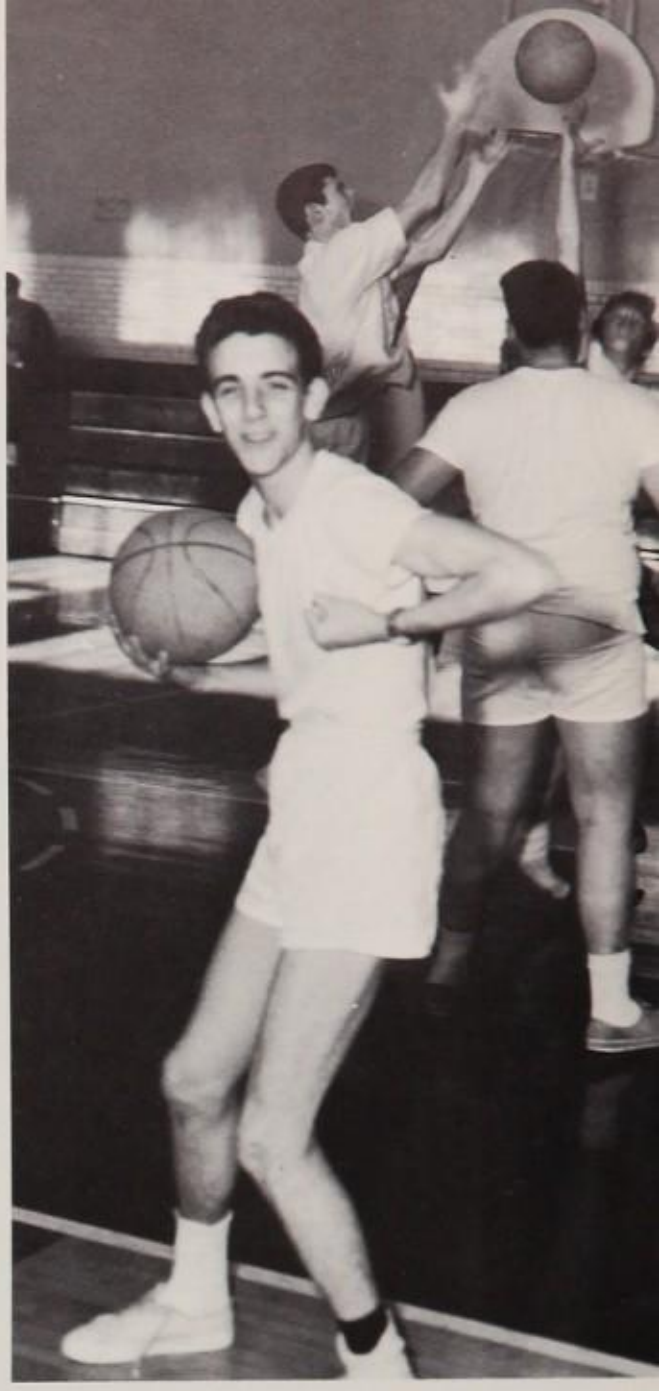
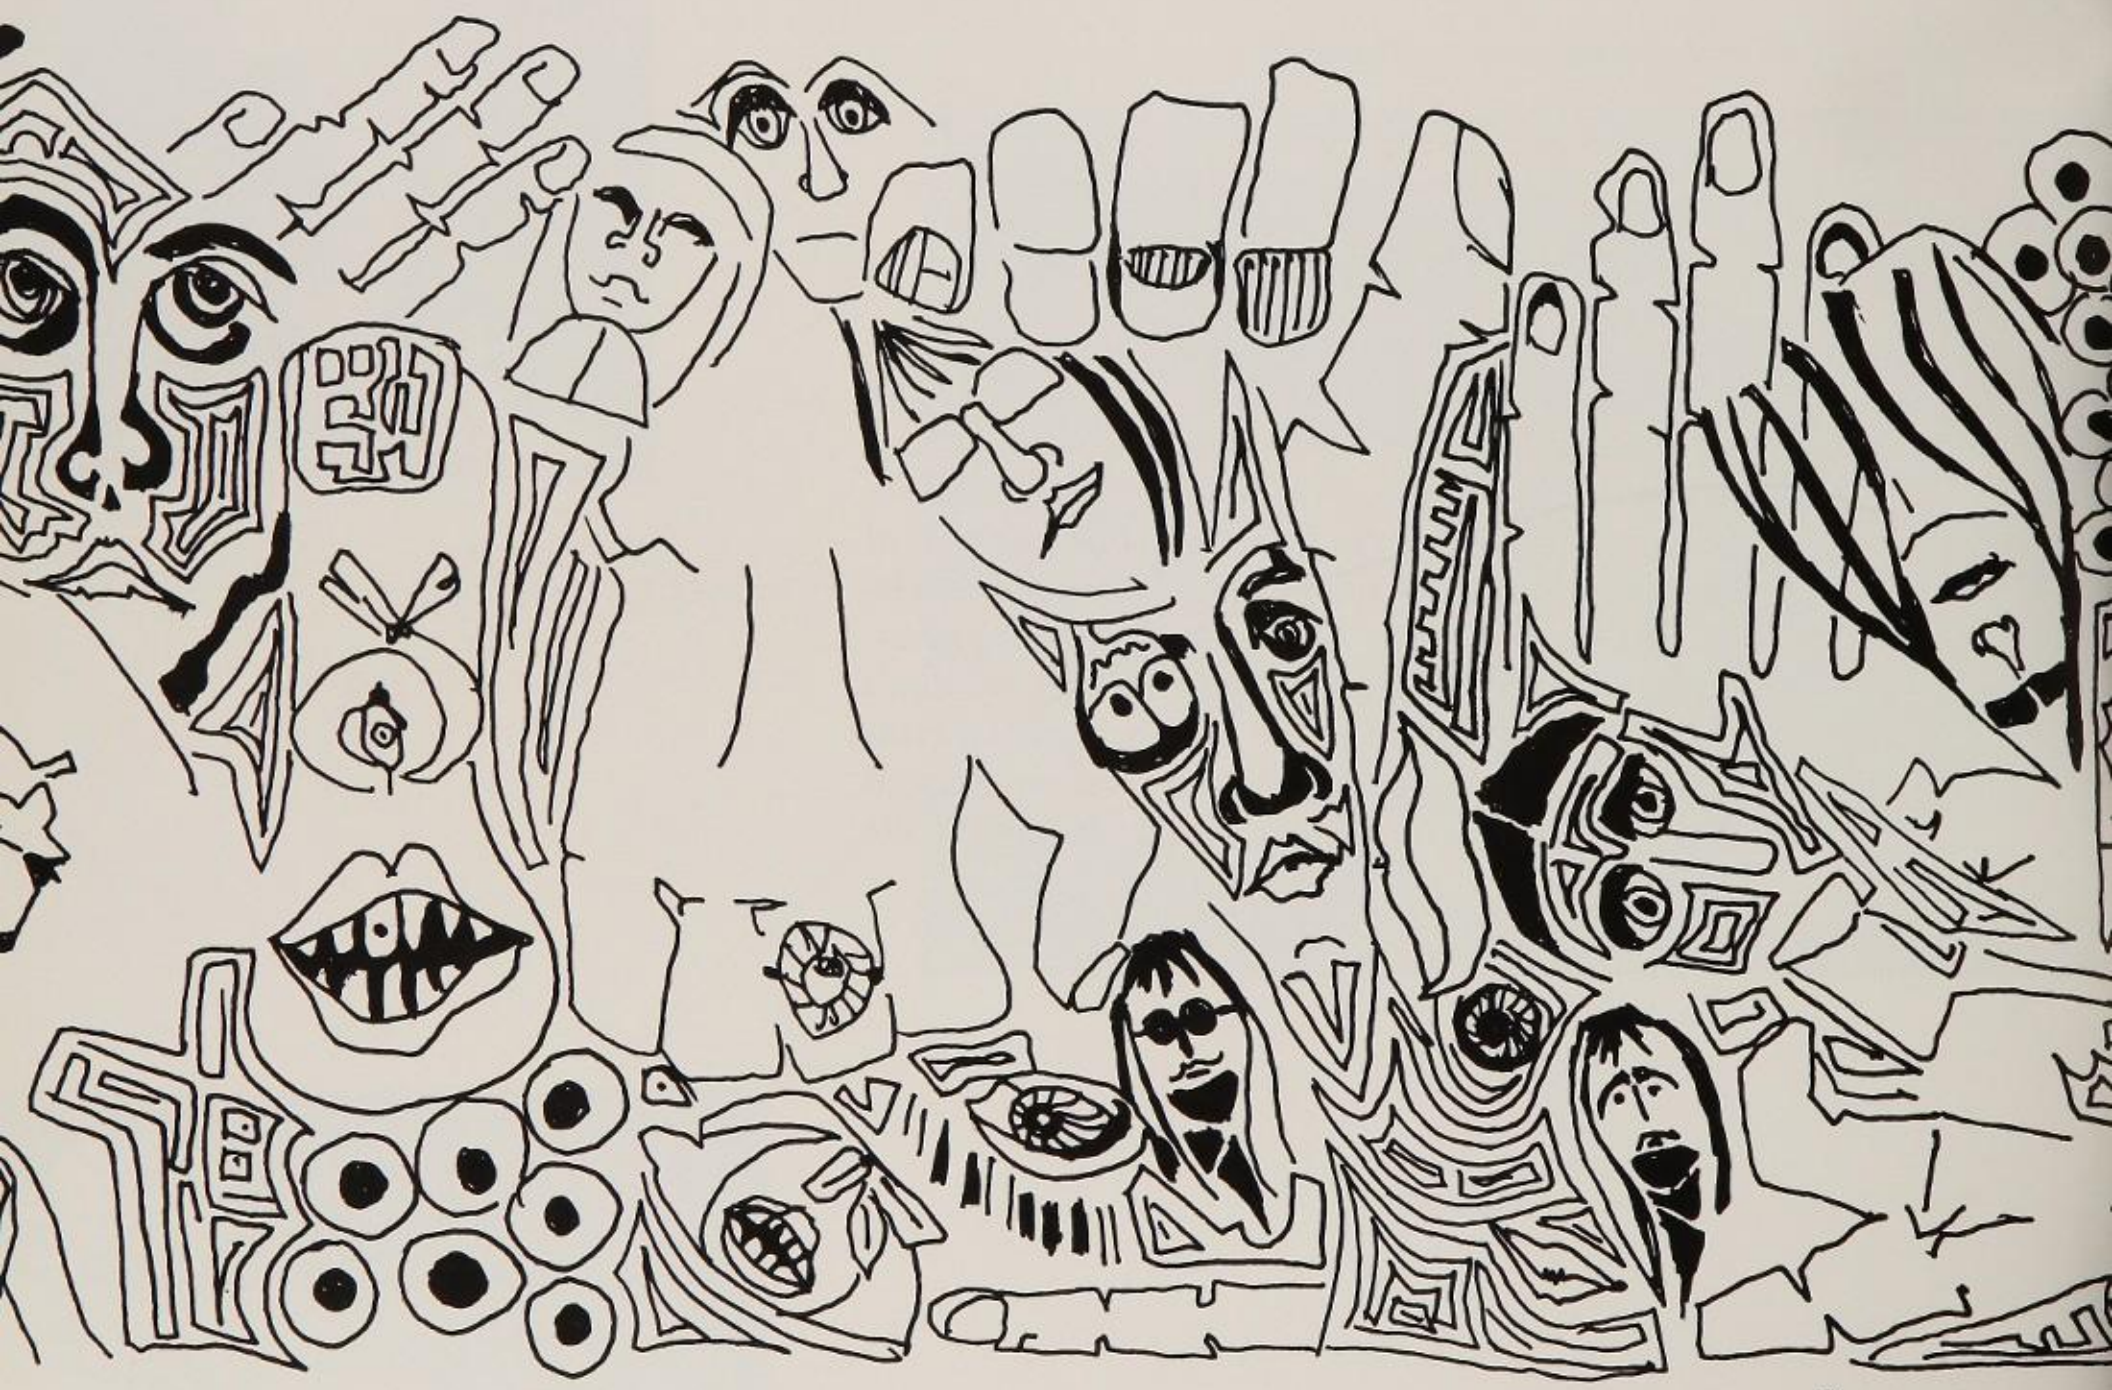
What?





SPORTS CANDIDS

There is a certain kind of picture that can not be placed with story it was taken for. We can justify putting a picture of this kind into the Schurzone only with others of its kind. The qualities of a picture that make it a "candid" are undefinable. It can be humorous or sad, apathetic or ridiculous; or it just might be so obscure that we don't really understand what the man behind the camera was thinking about. At any rate we present this "sports candid" section as a Schurzone "first."



ORGANIZATIONS

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

As one sits watching the flicker of the candles held by each of the new members of the National Honor Society, one may realize how much the tiny flames mean. Each member of this society is in the top five per cent of their class in four outstanding principles: Service, Scholarship, Leadership, and Character. In the silent purple glow of the N.H.S. induction ceremony, the tiny points of light remind one of the flame of knowledge which these students hope to carry . . . they remind one of stars.

LAURELS

Fragrant leaves of the laurel tree have performed a very special task throughout history. The Greeks used to present victors who showed outstanding skill with a wreath made of laurel leaves. The laurel continues its job as a symbol of achievement today at Schurz. Our victors have displayed outstanding success in the "game of books" and strive for the day when they see their names among those of the National Honor Society. A wreath of laurel leaves — a fitting reward for a Greek victor or a champion Schurz student.

Schurzone

Hands, fingers, struggling with the keys of a typewriter . . . drumming restlessly as the mind searches out words for an article . . . battling rubber cement, mimeograph ink, and chalk dust. Faces — worried, bewildered, tired, elated. A single purpose guides the Schurzone Staff through days of deadlines. Directed by various editors, Mr. Meyers, and Mr. Lloyd, the hands of the staff work together to produce a year-book which will represent one brief and busy year in the lives of the students, and which will remain as a record of their days at Schurz. As hands and faces make Schurz, so they make the Schurzone.

SCHURZ TIMES

From the crowded Schurz Times room comes the sound of people — people constantly on the move to keep the Times a'-changing! News at Schurz is not a secret for long, thanks to the efficient Schurz Times staff. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Schaible, the staff catches the moods and direction of currents among the students, pin-points them in print, and monthly presents this ever-changing picture to the people of Schurz.

Band And Orchestra

BAND OFFICERS
SEATED: G. Christensen (Vice Pres.), A. Roge (Pres.), P. Hartowicz (Secr.). STANDING: K. Price (Treas.).

Love of music with a beat, thrills of competition, honor in wearing a uniform — each year eager, enthusiastic students get wind of "what's happening" here at Schurz and join our Band. Their brass is pure gold to audiences at the annual concerts, and is the soundest reason for the spirit and spark at games and rallies.

Thirty tuned-in Schurz students who love to face the music — that's the Schurz Orchestra. Under the direction of Mr. Wilke, the Orchestra performs regularly at annual concerts. Our Orchestra keeps the student body moving to the sound of music throughout the entire year.

The Choruses

Faces uplifted in song set the stage for the Schurz choruses. Their voices set the spirit of the season at the Fall Music Festival, the Christmas Concert, the Lenten Concert, and all their other performances. Under the direction of Mr. Compton and Mrs. Schultheis, the choruses kept harmony at Schurz.

Aides

Deep within the busy centers of school activity, the Aides stand ready to answer any sudden call to duty. Among the records, files, rows of books, and endless piles of paper, these brave volunteers battle the little tasks that save time for teachers and office clerks. Marking papers, carrying messages, checking films, filing records, shelving books, stamping, counting, and running, the Aides strive to serve their school in every way !

Working with Mr. Kaide, this recently organized group of students gives aid during fire drills. The Fire Marshals make sure the rooms and halls are empty during drills, and that traffic is regulated as the students cross the streets. The Marshals perform an important task, and serve to make fire drills safer and more efficient.

Stage Crew

The audience becomes quiet as the curtains part. Backstage, this moment is the most hectic for the stage crew. The skilled crew, trained by Mr. Carlson, plays a large role in any Schurz production. Smooth handling of the curtains, props, stage equipment, lighting cues, and sound system is a major factor in the success of all programs, and Schurz can always rely on its Stage Crew to perform its part perfectly.

Key Club

"Now!" is the word that describes Key Club. Every one of the members is aiding America by doing something for people now. Soap drives for the Dixon State Hospital, collections for cancer, and informative assemblies are projects designed with others in mind. The Key Club, connected with the Kiwanis Club and sponsored by Mr. Lloyd, spent a year engaged in activities geared toward helping build a better tomorrow by doing something today.

Junior Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross is a unique and worthwhile organization dedicated to happiness. Sponsored by Miss Ternandt, the club brings happiness into the lives of others by aiding the less fortunate with money, when possible, and with a strong dose of cheerfulness, always. Smiling faces and helping hands — that's the Junior Red Cross!

German Club

The German Club, an active and enthusiastic group, opened its membership to any student interested in Germany, regardless of whether he is studying the language or not.

Throughout the year, the members were busy with several interesting projects, including the creation of a winning Homecoming float, which they built with the help of the Latin Club.

The German Club made new friends for the country and culture of Germany.

Latin Club

Enlivening the school with their activities, the members of the Latin Club dispel any rumors that Latin is a dead language! Participating in the now traditional events of Saturnalia and Latin Week, members filled the year with exciting frivolity and educational fun, helping to make Latin "come alive"!

F.B.L.A.

In the years to come, the business leaders of this and many other cities will be highly trained. The Future Business Leaders of America Club, under the supervision of Miss Albin and Mr. Powers, helps provide that training. The members attend conventions and meet people influential in business and manufacturing, gaining experience for their future careers.

F.H.A.

Through the Future Homemakers of America, a new organization at Schurz, girls had a chance to participate in activities relative to the future vocation of most female students: homemaking. Sponsored by Miss Anargyros and Mrs. Celmer, the club spent an active year involved in projects that will eventually help not only the girls, but the boys as well.

Under the supervision and sponsorship of Mr. Grashoff, the members of the Architectural Drawing Club learn to use their hands in interpreting the designs in their imaginations to meaningful lines and curves on paper. Utilizing their minds and their hands in this manner, the members have created many prizewinning designs during the past years.

Over-joyed, the members of the SCHURZONE Organizations staff celebrate the completion of the final day of shooting pictures.

CHESS CLUB
FRONT ROW: K. Gallagher, J. Jamieson, S. Gaborek, T. Blix, J. Adachi. SECOND ROW: S. Simon, M. Ryan, R. Johnson, R. Guccione, D. Lyons, J. Faulkner, J. Kasboske.

CHESS CLUB

Who defeated DePaul? Our chess club did, of course, with a victory of three games out of five. Under the guidance of Mr. Lamos, our chess club has become a competitive, group of excellent players! Want to check the chess club? Just ask for the king, Mr. Lamos.

SADDLIERS

The Saddliers are a group of energetic, nature-loving, and, of course, horse-loving people who spend every Tuesday afternoon horseback riding. Under Miss Glowienke's supervision, the sixty members meet at the Happy Day Stables for an afternoon of fun and horses. Now you can stop wondering who those people were that walked a little funny every Wednesday morning!

Meighan, J. Lunetto, R. Schroeder, F. Lahner, R. Puigdomenech, R. Thiede, L. Stride.

DRAMA CLUB

The afternoon silence has settled in the halls, and many classrooms are empty for the day, but the auditorium rings with voices and laughter. The stage is alive with the members of the Drama Club, who may be rehearsing four or five plays at once, under the direction of the club's sponsor, Miss Rebek. Students interested in the theater enjoy developing their talents and participating in Drama Club activities, even if most of their audiences are only the empty auditorium seats.

FOLK CLUB

Fingers strum, voices hum as the members of the Folk Club gather to hold their hootenannies and happenings. During the year, the members attend coffee houses, concerts, and art fairs. Active in school and community life, the club, sponsored by Mr. Keil, prints its own newspaper and participates in benefit programs. Above all, the members meet to sing and talk and learn more about the world of folk music.

SENIORS

The year started out regularly enough for us Seniors but who would have thought that it would hold so many wonderful memories? We can all remember the sweetness of the victory at the Homecoming Game and the beauty of the Homecoming Dance. The midterms, maybe not wonderful memories, were the last midterms we ever had. And who could deny waiting anxiously for their class rank? Then came the fulfillment of the wish of many, the N.H.S. induction. Where did we dine on delicious food and enjoy the good company of fellow Seniors? The Senior Dinner, of course. The highlight of the social year was the Senior Prom. All the beauty of Schurz was on display. Then came one of the greatest moments of our lives so far — graduation. All the hardships and joys melted into the moment when we received our diplomas and ended our lives at Schurz.

Dr. Eugene M. Vandenberg
Principal

Education is a lifetime program. Yet many formally educated people think there is something final about education-that they have one when they are given a diploma or a college degree.

Really, one never has an education in the true sense, but is always in the process of receiving education. Many things learned yesterday are not fact today, and some of today's learning will not be accepted within a few years. The horizons of knowledge are ever widening into new and uncharted areas. No one's education is ever complete, although the education of many is finished the day they walk out of high school.

Good citizens must have the inclination to take the initiative when responsible and productive thinking are required. They must also be able to participate and cooperate with others in common ventures. Those who will not participate unless they can lead, and those who unwillingly participate without ideas of their own never make superb citizens. Each assemblage lacks something of the well-rounded, balanced personality which is characteristically common to all high American ideals. Only when cooperative ventures are undertaken by various groups are new insights to the possibilities of democratic cooperation possible.

Mr. Charles A. Buell
Assistant Principal

Teachers and adminstrators hope every student who enters Schurz will leave it four or even five years later with a diploma in his hand. Not one of us has a desire to have even one student drop out, because we know this makes him a potential "drop-out" in life. The "smart" individual will try his best in each subject so that he will earn the high school diploma which will mean so much to him in later life.

Miss Ethel Doerrer
Assistant Principal

To those of you in the class of June 1968 I would like to say, "Congratulations and best of luck."

You are the leaders of tomorrow and our nation desperately needs leadership. It needs young people who are committed to bold, positive programs which demand outstanding leadership. This form of leadership is much more than being against the programs and policies of our nation's current leadership. It means being for something instead of against everything. It means having ideas and attitudes that are positive.

With this in mind I would like to say once again, "Congratulations."
